The UK Sucrologists' Club 2008 southern exchange meeting will be held in a function marquee at the Ramada Hotel on the outskirts of Dover. We hope that this will enable collectors from across the channel to join us.

The meeting is from 10am to 3pm but participants may arrive and leave at any time during the day.

UKSC does not endorse the buying and selling of packets. Participants at exchange meetings set out their surplus packets on their table and are then free to wander around the other tables taking any packets they require.

Swapping is not done on a one for one basis, collectors are usually happy for other participants to take whatever they want.

Sorting packets by country and arranging them in shallow trays or boxes is generally the most helpful.
